

Review October Automotive Roundtable in Beijing

Topic: China's Anti-Monopoly Law and How to Deal with the Changes Required

Presentations:

Mr. Gordon Xie, Partner of Automotive sector, PwC Consulting

Topic: Potential Impact of Anti-trust Intervention on Automotive Business Models

Ms. Fay Zhou, Partner Competition Practice, Linklaters LLP Beijing Representative Office

Topic: Compliance with Chinese Antitrust Law

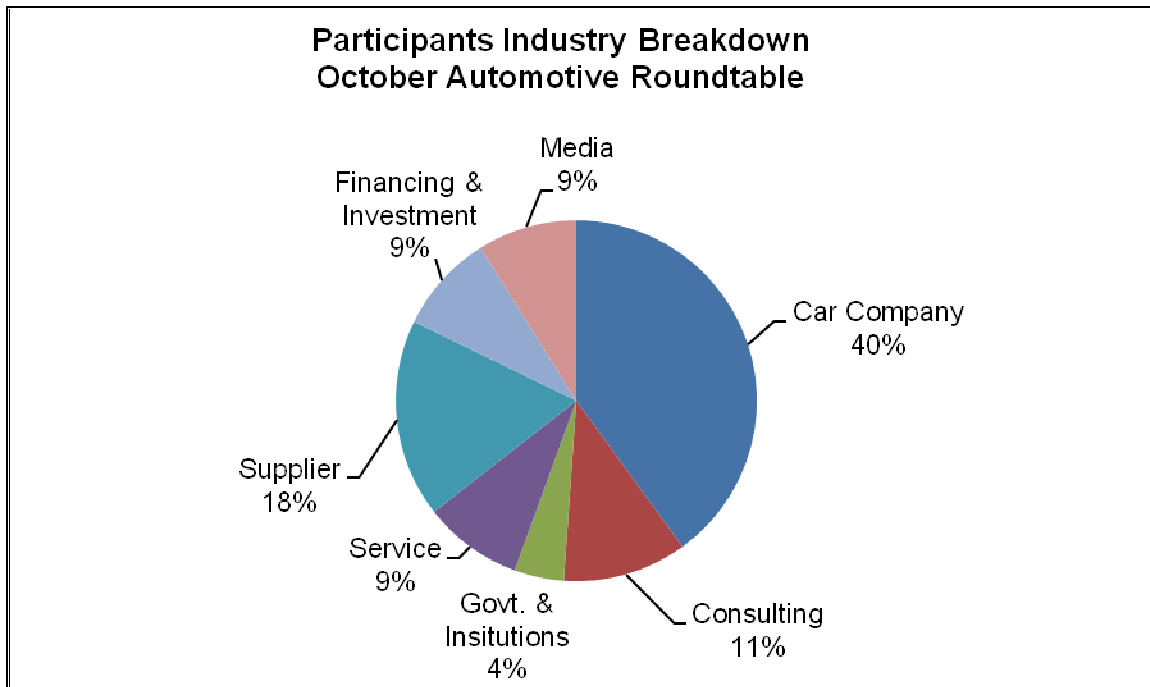

Panel Discussion:

Moderator: Mr. Stefan Sack, CEO, Comau (Shanghai) Engineering Co., Ltd & Vice President and Chairman of Board, Shanghai Chapter, European Union Chamber of Commerce in China (EUCCC)

Speakers:

- Fay Zhou, Partner Competition Practice, Linklaters LLP Beijing Representative Office
- Gordon Xie, Partner of Automotive sector, PwC Consulting.

Attendees: 45

Companies incl.

Antal International Beijing
Audi (China) Enterprise Management Co., Ltd.
Beijing Benz Automobile Corporation
Beijing Municipal Science & Technology Commission
BMW China
Comau (Shanghai) Engineering Co., Ltd
China Daily
CPC Unternehmensmanagement AG
Daimler Greater China Ltd.
DAT China
DIE WELT
European Union Chamber of Commerce in China (EUCCC)
FAW-VW
FEV
Haefele
HGC
HGS Concept
LabView Technology Ltd.
Linklaters LLP Beijing Representative Office
Morgan Cars
NRW.INVEST Beijing
PwC Consulting
Raiffeisen Bank International AG Beijing Branch
science + computing ag - A Bull Group Company
TULIP MEGA MEDIA
Volkswagen (China) Investment Co., Ltd.
Volkswagen Group
ZF (China) Investment Co., Ltd.